

FOUNDATION FRENCH

19FR/FC/LF13 - INTRODUCTION TO FRENCH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

SEMESTER I

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To greet, introduce oneself and others.
- To express one's likes, dislikes and opinions.
- To use Present and Past tenses.
- To ask questions.
- To talk about the time, the date, the quantity and the price.
- To express opinion.
- To invite, to accept and to refuse an invitation.
- To have an overview of the French civilisation.
- To get the gist of the French Literature.

19FR/FC/IL23 - INTERMEDIATE FRENCH AND LITERATURE

SEMESTER II

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To give directions.
- To express (obligation et interdit).
- To give advice.
- To describe a place, time and a person.
- To narrate, question and compare.
- To use future tense.
- To intensify her knowledge on the French civilisation.

19FR/FC/AL33 - ADVANCED LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE - I

SEMESTER III

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- Express approval, disapproval, indifference, certainty and uncertainty.
- To narrate and describe in Past time.
- To express and ask for a point of view.
- To justify a choice.

- To appreciate the wide range of French and Francophone literatures.

19FR/FC/AL43 - ADVANCED LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE - II

SEMESTER IV

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To express one's emotions: joy, sadness, fear, worries.
- To use subjunctive tense and express anger, discontent, disappointment, regrets.
- To avoid repetitions using pronouns.
- To conjugate important irregular verbs.
- To gain knowledge of French literature and culture.

GENERAL ELECTIVES

19FR/GE/SF22 - SPOKEN FRENCH

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To greet and spell out a word.

- To introduce herself as well as others.
- To express her preferences
- To ask questions, age and time.
- To provide details about her family and her routine.
- To describe someone.

19FR/GE/FN22 - FRENCH FOR BEGINNERS

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To understand the language
- To carry out a basic conversation in school.
- To talk about colours, numbers, shapes and parts of the body and time.
- To understand the French grammar.
- To express opinions, negations and interrogation
- To have an overview of the French civilisation.

19FR/GE/FS22 - FRENCH FOR BUSINESS

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To discover the workspace.

- To get acquainted with each other.
- To introduce oneself and others.
- To approach someone for information.
- To make an appointment with somebody.
- To analyse the visiting cards.
- To steer a general conversation.

19FR/GE/FT22 - FRENCH FOR TOURISM

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To give information about oneself.
- To introduce a tourism professional.
- To express one's likes, dislikes and opinions.
- To discover the jobs related to tourism field and to prepare a questionnaire.
- To identify informational materials and respond to inquiries.
- To understand a tourist pamphlet.
- To propose personalized activities.
- To be acquainted with the city and guide tourists.
- To understand historical and cultural explanations and prepare a guided tour.

POSTGRADUATE ELECTIVES

19FR/PE/FB23 - BEGINNERS FRENCH

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To understand the language.
- To carry out a basic conversation in school.
- To talk about colours, numbers, shapes and parts of the body and time.
- To understand the French grammar.
- To express opinions, negations and interrogation.
- To talk about the time and the date.
- To talk about the hobbies or favourite activities.
- To have an overview of the French civilisation.

19FR/PE/BF23 - BUSINESS FRENCH

On successful completion of the semester, the student should be able:

- To discover the workspace.
- To get acquainted with each other.

- To introduce oneself and others.
- To approach someone for information.
- To make an appointment with somebody.
- To talk about a person, his profession, age, family, profession and ambition.
- To analyse the visiting cards.
- To steer a general conversation.
- To have a simple telephone conversation