

TIMES OF UP

By TIMES OF UP
August 30, 2021

Education

Jayshree Venkatraman Digital Studying and Analysis Centre launched

A Digital Studying and Analysis Centre within the identify of Jayshree Venkatraman, erstwhile Chairman of AMCO Batteries and Director of TAFE, has been established by TAFE (Tractors and Farm Tools) and the household of Jayshree Venkatraman.

The Jayashree Digital Studying and Analysis Centre has come up at Stella Maris Faculty in Chennai to supply bodily and digital infrastructure for conducting on-line and hybrid programs, producing web-based studying modules and optimising on-line collaborations with tutorial establishments and the business throughout the globe, in accordance with an announcement.

The high-tech centre, inaugurated by Mallika Srinivasan, Chairman and Managing Director of TAFE, offers learner-centric fashions of digital expertise with a purpose to put together the scholars for a clean transition from the campus to the company world.

“Jayshree as a enterprise chief, passionately believed in excellence. She was recognized for her large-heartedness and generously supported significant causes to enhance the lives of individuals round her. Jayshree was spiritedly dedicated to the reason for girls’s training and progress of their skilled aspirations and through the years, constructed a robust and reverential bond along with her alma mater – Stella Maris Faculty. This cutting-edge digital centre is devoted to her and the spirit of life she epitomised,” stated Mallika Srinivasan.

Link:

<https://www.timesofup.in/2021/08/30/jayshree-venkatraman-digital-studying-and-analysis-centre-launched/>