Stella Maris conducts awareness campaign for first-time voters

CHENNAI: Stella Maris College (SMC) Think Tank and Stella Maris College (SMC) Electoral Literacy Club on Wednesday conducted an awareness campaign to encourage youth, especially first-time voters, to exercise their right to vote.

Students participated in several awareness activities such as poster competition, reel making competition and a quiz.

A survey was also undertaken amongst the students to find out the number of first-time eligible voters and eligible students above 18 years who have not yet enrolled themselves.
