

From the amateurs' files

04th April 2009

CHENNAI: The Department of Fine Arts, Stella Maris College organised 'Art Exhibition '09', a collection of art works by their final year students on March 29 at Lakshanya gallery, Mylapore. Reputed personalities AVM Saravanan and art director Thota Dharani inaugurated the show. The exhibits included the works of 12 budding student artists that were well applied both in concept and technique.

Thota Dharani switched on the show with his smooth touch of colours. Works signifying the spiritual aspects and the dreams of women were well portrayed by the convention of colours and backdrops.

Portraits of eminent personalities like Rajinikanth, M G R and Jayalalithaa, minute works of flowers, the traditional painting of a bharathanatIAM dancer and decorated images of cows and bulls were also on show. The sketches were on display till April 3.