

Overhead Projector

The Overhead Projector was made available during the 1990's. With this projector the teacher could project her own creative teaching material to the class. Anything that had to be shown could be photocopied on to an OHP sheet (transparent sheet) and that could be shown to the student as teaching aid. The image could also be hand drawn and the teaching aid could be a very personalized one.

