Debate on Cops at Stella Maris

Chennai: Stella Maris College, in partnership with the Guild of Service (GoS), will hold an inter-collegiate debate on February 3 on the topic, 'Indian Police: Less Protectors, More Perpetrators'. The college has taken the debate a step further by inviting students to take part in the debate in Tamil as well, to be held on the on the same day. Also, the Guild of Service is organising a national consultation on police reforms at the India International Centre in New Delhi on February 9 and Union Home Minister Rajnath Singh is expected to grace the valedictory session. ENS
