Stella Maris College plans management conclave

Our Bureau

Chennai, Jan. 21

The Department of Commerce, Stella Maris College, in association with the Madras Management Association and Business Line, is organising a two-day national conference 'Management beyond Repertoire' on January 30-31 at the college.

There will be six business sessions and a discussion by a panel of speakers from the industry such as S. Gurumurthy, chartered accountant and corporate advisor; Kavitha Dutt Chitturi, Executive Director, The KCP Ltd; L. Kannan, Founder and CEO, Fractal Foundation; and K. Pandiarajan, Founder, Ma Foi group. They will share their knowledge and wide experience and throw light on the current trends which are re-writing the rules of management. Also participating are Aarati Krishnan, Head of Research, Business Line, Saundarya Rajesh of Avtar Career Creators and Anu Oza of Innobridge Consulting, among others.

The conference will give the delegates an opportunity to interact with and participate in discussions with these executives and provide an understanding of the roles and challenges of managers in the modern era. This is open to academicians, research scholars, students and corporate houses across the country.
