

June 27, 2015

Dishes that are the hot favourites in Chennai college canteens

From chilli parotta to chicken fried rice, to noodles and burgers, here are some of the most popular dishes that you must try at your college canteens...

Mrinalini.Sundar@timesgroup.com

Tenzin Namdol

MOP VAISHNAV COLLEGE | CHILLI PAROTTA

The canteen at MOP Vaishnav College is always crowded. At any given point in the day, one will have to wait their turn to place an order and grab a bite. But that is never a deterrent for students who rush to the canteen the moment they can, for a plate of their favourite – the crispy and filling chilli parotta.

Other attractions: Always served steaming hot, the sambar rice that comes with papadam leaves one wanting more, and they love the ghee overdose, too. A pure vegetarian canteen, they also have a variety of fresh juice and to wash it all down.

Naushin Jaffer

ETHIRAJ COLLEGE | FRIED RICE

According to Naushin Jaffer, who is currently pursuing her second year in MA Journalism and Mass Communication at this college, the most popular dish in the canteen is the fried rice that comes in three varieties – vegetable, gobi and paneer. The college has two vegetarian canteens that can accommodate up to 80 students at one go.

Other attractions: Sandwiches that come with varied fillings like vegetable, chilli cheese, aloo, paneer and channa. Some other favourites are freshly made bread roll and soda. There is a separate counter that serves pani puri, bhel puri and channa samosa.

Sneha Dugar

MADRAS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE | BURGERS

The students of MCC hardly visit any other fast food joint in the city, thanks to their burger counter in the canteen. “We have a morning and evening college canteen. The caterers generally fry the frozen patty and then serve them in the burgers. They also let us indulge in some extra cheese if we want to,” says Daya RS, a third year journalism student.

Other attractions: Besides burgers, they also have regulars like dosa, idli, poori and chapati. For a quick drink, students opt for the five rupee cola.

STELLA MARIS COLLEGE | SAMOSA

When talking of popular canteens, one cannot miss the one at this college. Sneha Dugar, a fourth year student pursuing her visual arts, says the samosas are a big hit. “We are all addicted to the samosa, it is a must-have in our college.” Meanwhile, Rena Singhi, a second year BCom student makes sure she has at least one cup of the iced tea that is refreshing and light.

Other attractions: The American corn station is always crowded with students and so is the chaat counter. Within the compound is a mess that serves South Indian treats like dosas and idlis.

FOR MORE TURN TO PAGE 10