

Value of Theosophy Stressed

MADRAS, Nov. 12.

Theosophy, which was a way of life based on the principles of brotherhood, and love, had done much to promote international understanding, said Mrs. Madhuben Shah, wife of the Tamil Nadu Governor, yesterday, while giving away the Dr. Besant Memorial Rolling Shield and other prizes in the oratorical contest held as part of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the Vasantha Lodge of the Theosophical Society, Adyar. Mr. John B. S. Coats, International President of the Society, presided. The shield was won by the Stella Maris College. The three-day Jubilee celebrations were inaugurated on November 9 by Miss Joy Mills, the Society's International Vice-President. On November 11, Mrs. Rukmini Devi delivered the Dr. Arundale Memorial Lecture.
