

SPECIAL BUSES FOR STUDENTS

MADRAS, June 17.

The students' special buses operated exclusively for the benefit of students by the State Transport and suspended temporarily due to closure of schools and colleges will commence operating from June 20, 1960. As Stella Maris College has been shifted to Cathedral Road, necessary changes in re-routing of the specials to cater to the needs of the students has been made. The special buses are running on 11 routes, touching different schools and colleges in the City.
